

Writing into a Safe Space:

A LGBTQ+

Writing Group

Presented by: Mimi Yu, GT WRLC

Join us every Thursday from 2:00pm to 3:00pm from 2/10 - 5/12 via zoom

This informal, student-centered group will focus on using writing as a medium to create a place in which to explore, navigate, and share the experiences of an LGBTQ+ identity in a judgment-free environment. Participants will be encouraged to read and respond to a variety of works by LGBTQ+ writers, and are also invited to make the space their own by selecting readings and discussion topics according to their own personal interests. Let's make our own safe space together!
