Tuesday, October 18th, at 11:00 am

Students interested in learning more about degree programs, transfer agreements, and career opportunities in criminal justice are encouraged to attend the above advising session. Faculty will be available to discuss the distinctions between the Montgomery College AA and AAS degree programs in criminal justice. We will also discuss issues related transfer programs, career pathways, and background clearance considerations.

Please contact Professor Sean Fay with any program questions at sean.fay@montgomerycollege.edu .

Student can register for the advising session via the attached Zoom link:
