

Advising Day Schedule

Celia Evans

October, 18 2022

I am the new Program Advisor for Mathematics and Advising Day is not only a perfect opportunity to advise, but also an opportunity for me to get to know our Math Majors. If this is you, please drop by during the hours posted below. My office is SC 454K, in the Science Center on the Rockville campus. If you can't come by on Advising Day, please write me to set up another time. It can be either in person or by zoom. My MC email is celia.evans@montgomerycollege.edu
